
KAREN YEATS, Simon Fraser University

Spanning forest polynomials and Feynman graph denominators

If we take a Feynman integral in Schwinger parametric form and integrate one variable at a time then the denominators have a natural combinatorial interpretation in terms of spanning forest polynomials. I will discuss this setup and what insight this perspective brings.