
M. DEVOS, Simon Fraser University

Edge Expansion

Given a simple connected regular graph G , we are interested in finding good lower bounds on the number of edges in the graph G^k . I will discuss tight bounds for the average degree of G^3 and G^4 , and an essentially tight bound for G^k when k is congruent to 2 modulo 3. This represents joint work with Stephan Thomasse and with Jessica McDonald and Diego Scheide.