PENNY HAXELL, University of Waterloo

Tripartite hypergraphs and connectedness

We derive certain structural results about 3-partite 3-uniform hypergraphs by studying the topological connectedness of the independence complex of line graphs. These in turn lead to new bounds for an old conjecture on packing and covering triangles in graphs.