
JASON BROWN, Dalhousie University
My Streak of Independence with Richard

Over the years Richard and I have worked together but independently on a variety of graph problems. In this talk I will share some of my favourite ideas and results, including some well-covered topics. And for independence polynomials, I'll get right to the roots of the issue.