
SARA FARIDI, Dalhousie University
Resolutions of monomial ideals

This talk will focus on some recent developments in resolutions of monomial ideals, and on Cohen-Macaulay properties of monomial ideals. The techniques used are from graph theory and from hypergraph theory. In particular, some special cases where betti numbers can be completely described via a direct or recursive formula will be discussed.