
CHRISTOPHER DUFFY, University of Victoria
The Firefighter Problem - Weights and Sets

The Firefighter Problem describes a discrete-time process that models the spread of a fire using the vertices of the graph. We consider algorithms and complexity results for the related problems of determining when a fixed set of vertices can be protected from burning and determining the strategy that minimizes the weight of the vertices that burn.