
JESSICA ENRIGHT, University of Alberta
Set Representation Graph Games

Combinatorial games on graphs are an active area of study. We present several new types of games using set representations of graphs that are all generalisations of node-Kayles. We show that resolving the outcome of a position in these games is PSPACE-complete, but give algorithms for resolving restricted types of positions in polynomial time when playing these games with trees.