
MATTHIAS KRIESELL, Technical University Ilmenau

On the Structure of Graphs of Minimum Degree at least Four

We characterize the graphs of minimum degree at least 4 which cannot be reduced to smaller such graphs by either contracting or deleting a single edge, in terms of decompositions into edge disjoint copies of graphs out of a small list of small building blocks.