
VICTOR REINER, Univ. of Minnesota

Catalan numbers, parking functions, and invariant theory

Catalan numbers and parking functions are well-studied combinatorial objects with many wonderful properties. There are ways to view them as associated to the symmetric group, viewed as a reflection group, and then generalize them to all finite real reflection groups. We will discuss how some of their wonderful properties generalize, and how invariant theory plays a role.