
JOE SAWADA, University of Guelph
An overview of Combinatorial Generation

This talk will provide an overview for the session, providing a brief history, general definitions, and several applications. Several recent Gray code results will be mentioned with their relationships to universal cycles.