
AYSEL EREY, Dalhousie University

Extremal Restraints for Graph Colourings

A k -restraint r on a graph G is a function which assigns each vertex of G exactly k forbidden colours. We discuss recent results on the following problem: among all k -restraints r on G which restraint permits the largest or smallest number of colourings?

(Joint work with Jason Brown)