
BRETT STEVENS, Carleton University

Introduction to covering arrays

As a preface to the minisymposium on covering arrays I will introduce covering arrays formally and by example. I will discuss the central construction methods including recursive, algebraic and probabilistic. I will review known optimal arrays and asymptotic sizes. I will end with some open problems.