

---

MARTHE BONAMY, Laboratoire Bordelais de Recherche en Informatique, France

Around Brooks' theorem

In this talk, we will discuss various results around Brooks' theorem: a graph has chromatic number at most its maximum degree, unless it is a clique or an odd cycle. We will consider stronger variants and local versions, as well as the structure of the solution space of all corresponding colorings.