

---

BRUCE SHEPHERD, UBC

Single Tree Cut Approximators and Disjoint Paths in Outerplanar Graphs

We show the existence of a tree which approximates all cut capacities in an outerplanar within a constant factor. We also show that this can be used to give a constant factor approximation to the maximum weight edge-disjoint path problem (MEDP). Such an algorithm for MEDP was previously only known for trees.