
SERGEY NORIN, McGill University

Recent progress towards Hadwiger's conjecture

Hadwiger's conjecture from 1943 is a far-reaching strengthening of the Four Color Theorem. It states that every simple graph with no K_t minor can be properly colored using $t - 1$ colors. In this talk we will survey recent progress towards the conjecture, as well as the remaining (major) obstacles.